MEDIA POLICIES FOR PIRATE GAMES

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Application for working media credentials should have been made in writing and received no later than Friday, March 8. All requests must come from sports editors, sports directors or photo editors, and submitted on official letterhead.

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering sources who will cover the Pirates everyday. Only members of the working press will be issued credentials (this does not include freelance writers, weekly or monthly publications). No one under 18 years of age will be issued working credentials, unless clearance has been given by the Pirates. Only Pittsburgh Pirate, National League or BBWAA-issued credentials will be honored. Credentials are not transferable and should be visible at all times.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those who do not qualify for season credentials, including freelance writers and weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to area Radio and Television stations when the need arises for extra pre/post-game personnel and daily newspapers making last-minute changes in coverage. All daily requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired game.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Should the need arise for an autograph request, notify the Media Relations Department. Any violation of these guidelines could result in immediate termination of the credential and future access.

ADMISSION TO THE STADIUM: On game days, all credentialed media must enter Three Rivers Stadium through Press Gate A on the street level. The press gate opens 2 hours prior to game time. DAILY CREDENTIALS will be left at the "Media Credential Pick-Up Window" outside Press Gate A (street level).

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: The Pirate clubhouse is open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before game time. The clubhouse is open to credentialed media immediately following games. The clubhouse is not a "lounge" for members of the media - you must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. It may be open briefly between games of a doubleheader only for those with early deadlines and it is closed during rain delays. Access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined solely by the visiting club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: The field and dugouts are accessible to credentialed media from the time the press gate opens until the end of the visiting club's batting practice. If the visiting club does not take batting practice, the field is accessible until 45 minutes before game time. At no time is the media permitted in fair territory and must stay inside the first and third base bags.

WORKING PRESS BOX: Open to credentialed working members of the print, radio and TV media. Television crew technicians will be accommodated in fourth-level booths. No cameras (still or video) are allowed in press box unless authorized by the Pirates.

PRESS LOUNGE: Open to credentialed media 90 minutes prior to game time until one hour after game concludes. A full meal is served pre-game for $5.00. Snacks and beverages are available during games and beverage service is available post-game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Still photographers must work out of stationary locations adjacent to both dugouts (first base photo position has assigned locations for regular Pittsburgh media outlets). All photographers must have credentials and roving is prohibited unless authorized by the Pirates. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products.

REPORTS, RADIO & TV: Reports are defined as NON play-by-play reporting by non-rightsholders of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game in-progress updates and post-game summaries.

- Reports must be limited to 60 seconds in length and no more than one report per inning may be filed to each media outlet.
- Radio and television reporters/stringers must notify the Pirates of their plans to do live reports at the time credentials are requested.
- Television reporters may file live reports from the field or an assigned fourth-level booth up until game time. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or while the game is in progress.
- Live television reports - to air during regularly scheduled news programming - are permitted during the game only when there is no home telecast. These in-game reports may not show the game in progress.

NOTE: Violation of any of the above policies and procedures could result in revocation of your credentials.

SO LONG, SALLY

The 1996 Pirates' Media and Information Guide is dedicated to Sally O'Leary. After working more than 30 years in the club's public relations department, she is calling it quits at the end of April. Since 1964 Sally has touched many lives and has made countless contributions to the media, players, broadcasters and front-office staff. She managed to outlast four team presidents, five general managers, six managers and seven bosses in the P.R. department. Here's hoping that we can manage without her. Thanks for everything, Sally. You will certainly be missed, but not forgotten.

KEVIN S. McCLATCHY

Chief Executive Officer and Managing General Partner

Kevin McClatchy was named Chief Executive Officer and Managing General Partner when the ownership group he formed purchased the franchise on February 14, 1996.

Despite the efforts of other potential buyers to move the Pirates elsewhere, McClatchy was determined to keep the team in Pittsburgh. Maintaining a combination of tenacity and ingenuity throughout a grueling nine-month effort, McClatchy organized a group of civic-minded individuals and local corporations to save the franchise.

McClatchy, the fifth owner of the 109-year-old organization, most recently served as National Sales Manager for the Newspaper Network; a subsidiary of McClatchy Newspapers. The McClatchy family, which founded The Sacramento Bee newspaper in 1857, has more than 20 different newspapers in 10 states nationwide.

McClatchy's professional career began at WPLG-TV, the ABC affiliate in Miami, where he served as a sports producer. He later joined Knight-Ridder Newspapers and spent four years in the national advertising and marketing department at The Miami Herald. In 1990, Kevin returned to California where he ran the daily business operations for The Amador Ledger-Dispatch and continued to work in the advertising and marketing departments for McClatchy Newspapers.

McClatchy's introduction to ownership of a professional baseball franchise came in 1994 when he and a partner purchased the Modesto A's, the Class-A affiliate of the Oakland Athletics. As team president, McClatchy learned the importance of making the game a pleasurable experience for his bosses, the fans. His efforts paid off as the team saw its attendance increase from 100,016 in 1993 to 109,314 in 1994.

PERSONAL: Kevin S. McClatchy...Born on 1/13/63 in Sacramento, CA...Attended Trinity-Pawling High School in Pawling, NY, and received a degree in Political Science from the University of California at Santa Barbara...Is a member of the Board of Trustees at both schools...Was involved with the United Way Foundation and the Big Brother program while living in Miami.

THE MANAGER

Jim Leyland is in his 11th season as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Only two other managers in club history have skippered the Bucs for more than 10 seasons (Fred Clarke for 16 years and Danny Murtaugh for 15). During his first 10 seasons with the Pirates, Leyland has compiled a record of 776-771 (.502 winning percentage) and established himself as one of the finest managers in the game of baseball.

On July 25, 1994, Leyland picked up win #712 in a Pittsburgh uniform and surpassed Chuck Tanner (711 wins) to become the third-winningest manager in the 109-year history of the Pirates. Only Clarke (1,422) and Murtaugh (1,115) have won more games as skipper of the Bucs. Leyland picked up his 700th career victory on June 24, 1994, when the Pirates defeated the New York Mets, 9-4, @Shea Stadium.

With 777 career managerial victories, Leyland entered the 1996 season sixth among active major league managers in career victories, trailing Tommy Lasorda (1,558), Tony LaRussa (1,320), Bobby Cox (1,115), Joe Torre (936) and Jim Fregosi (794). Only Lasorda has been with his current club longer than Leyland has been in Pittsburgh.

When he was named manager of the Pirates on November 20, 1985, Leyland inherited a team that had finished 57-104 the previous season. His first Pirate club showed a seven-game improvement to 64-98, but still finished sixth in the division. The 1987 club won 27 of its last 38 games and tied Philadelphia for fourth place with an 80-82 mark. The Pirates improved to 85-75 in 1988 and finished second in the N.L. East behind the New York Mets. In 1989, the Bucs were hampered by injuries throughout the season and finished fifth with a 74-88 record.

Leyland helped make the 1990 season memorable by guiding the Bucs to a 95-67 record and their first division title in 11 years. The season came to a close when the Pirates lost to the eventual World Champion Cincinnati Reds in the National League Championship Series, four games to two. Pittsburgh dropped the 1991 N.L.C.S. to the Atlanta Braves, four games to three, after finishing the regular season with the best record in baseball (98-64).

During the 1992 season, he guided the Bucs to a 96-66 record and their third straight division championship. Pittsburgh became the first N.L. team to win three consecutive division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. However, the Bucs lost another dramatic seven-game battle with Atlanta in the 1992 N.L.C.S.

In 1992, Leyland was named National League Manager-of-the-Year by both The Sporting News and the Baseball Writers Association of America. It marked the third time he has won The Sporting News award (also won it in 1988 and 1990) and the second time he has been honored by the BBWAA (also in 1990).

His appointment as manager of the Pirates followed more than 22 years in professional baseball, including 11 seasons as a manager in the Detroit Tigers' farm system. Leyland also spent four seasons (1982-1985) as third base coach of the Chicago White Sox under Manager Tony LaRussa prior to coming to Pittsburgh.

A catcher during his playing days, Leyland signed his first professional contract with Detroit in 1963. He served the organization as a player, minor league coach and minor league manager until joining the White Sox in 1982.

After six seasons as a player (1964-1969), he was appointed coach at Montgomery (AA) in the Southern League in 1970. Leyland received his first managerial assignment at the age of 26 in 1971, taking over the Tigers' Bristol club in the Appalachian Rookie League. His composite record as a minor league manager was 730-672 (.521 winning percentage) and his teams advanced to post-season play six times in 11 years. Leyland won league championships with Lakeland (Class A) in 1977 and 1978 and was named Manager-of-the-Year in the Florida State League both years. He was also American Association Manager-of-the-Year in 1979 after leading Evansville (AAA) to the league title.

PERSONAL: James Richard Leyland...Wife's name is Katie...Two children: Patrick James (10/11/91) and Kellie Ragan (6/23/93)... Raised in Perrysburg, OH (a Toledo suburb)...Graduate of Perrysburg High School in 1963 where he played football, basketball and baseball...Brother (Tom) is a Catholic priest who performed his wedding ceremony in November of 1987...Named Dapper Dan Man-of-the-Year for 1990, an award given annually to a Pittsburgh sports figure in recognition of outstanding achievement on a national level.

Donnelly spent six seasons as the club's Bullpen Coach before switching to the third base coaching box in 1992. In addition to his other duties, Rich coordinates the daily workout schedules for the club during spring training and all phases of the regular season pre-game routine.

A former catcher, Donnelly was originally signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1967 after playing four seasons at Xavier (OH) University. He had been drafted twice previously by the New York Yankees, but opted to stay in school. A veteran of 26 years in professional baseball, the Steubenville (OH) native spent 16 years in the Washington/Texas organization before joining the Pirates.

Donnelly began his pro career with St. Cloud (A) in the Northern League in 1968. That year he tied for the league lead in games played and led all league catchers in putouts (486), assists (58) and fielding percentage (.984).

He spent four years as a player prior to becoming Manager of the Texas Rangers' Greenville (A) club in the Western Carolinas League in 1972. He managed the Rangers' Western Carolinas League clubs for four years, earning Manager-of-the-Year honors in each of the first three seasons (his teams reached the playoffs each year). His 1974 Gastonia club won the league title. In 1976, the Rangers promoted Donnelly to the Triple-A level in the Pacific Coast League. He piloted Sacramento in 1976 and then Tucson from 1977 to 1979.

Gene Lamont returns to the Pirates as their Third Base Coach for the 1996 season. He served the club in that capacity from 1986-1991, before being named Manager of the Chicago White Sox on 11/26/91.

Lamont compiled a 258-210 (.551) record with the White Sox before being dismissed of his duties on June 2, 1995. In 1993 he led the ChiSox to a 94-68 record and the American League West division title - the club's first title since 1983. For his efforts, Gene was named the American League's Manager-of-the-Year. His club also finished first during the strike-shortened 1994 campaign.

One day after Jim Leyland was hired as manager of the Pirates, he named Lamont as his Third Base Coach. During his tenure with the Bucs, which included Championship Series appearances in 1990 and 1991, Gene was also responsible for setting up the Pirates' defensive alignments, relaying offensive signs and running infield practice prior to each game.

Lamont spent eight seasons as a manager in the Kansas City Royals' farm system after retiring as a player in 1977. He began his managerial career with Ft. Myers (A) in 1978, leading the club to a playoff berth. Following two seasons with Ft. Myers, he managed Jacksonville (AA) for four years. Lamont was named the Southern League's Manager-of-the-Year in 1982 and his clubs advanced to the playoffs in two of the four seasons. He spent his two years prior to joining the Pirates as manager at Omaha (AAA).

The Detroit Tigers made Lamont their number one selection (13th pick overall) in 1965, drafting him ahead of Hall-of-Famer Johnny Bench (second round). He made his big league debut with the Tigers in 1970 and homered off Boston's Cal Koonce in his first at bat on September 2. In five seasons with the Tigers, Lamont posted a .233 career average with four home runs and 14 RBI in 87 games.

MANAGER/COACHES

Milt May is in his tenth season as Hitting Instructor for the Pirates. The former major league catcher was named to his current post on November 11, 1986. His role entails working with hitters on their mechanics and discussing with them the tendencies of opposing pitchers.

May played 14 full years in the major leagues before retiring following the 1984 season. After spending one year as vice president of a bank in Bradenton, he worked for the Pirates as an advance scout, a roving minor-league catching and hitting instructor and as a manager in the Florida Instructional League in 1986.

Selected by Pittsburgh in the 1968 June Free Agent Draft, May made his major league debut with the Pirates at the age of 20 in 1970. He played three full seasons with the Bucs before moving on to Houston, Detroit, the Chicago White Sox and San Francisco. May was reacquired by Pittsburgh in August of 1983 and closed out his career with the Bucs. He compiled a .263 lifetime batting average with 77 home runs and 443 RBI in 1192 major league games.

May was named to the All-Star squad in each of his three minor league seasons -- Gulf Coast Rookie League in 1968, Western Carolinas League in 1969 and International League in 1970. At age 21, he delivered a game-winning, pinch-hit single in Game Four of the 1971 World Series vs. Baltimore. Traded to Houston after the 1973 season, he drove in Bob Watson with major league baseball's one-millionth run on May 4, 1975 when he hit a three-run home run at San Francisco. He was traded to Detroit following the 1975 season, but played just six games with the Tigers in 1976 due to a fractured ankle. He spent the second half of the 1979 season with the White Sox and then signed with San Francisco as a free agent for the 1980 season.

DID YOU KNOW . . . Only four teams in World Series history have come back from a three-games-to-one deficit to win the title in a seven-game Series, and the Pirates are the only team to do it twice. The Bucs rebounded against the Washington Senators in 1925 and against the Baltimore Orioles in 1979. The other teams to accomplish the feat were the 1958 Yankees, the 1968 Tigers and the 1985 Royals.

PIRATE BROADCASTERS

Lanny Frattare

The 1996 season marks Lanny Frattare's 21st as a broadcaster with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Only Bob Prince (28 years) has described the action of Pirate baseball longer.

Since joining the Bucs' team of announcers in 1976, Frattare has done play-by-play for more than 3,000 games and developed a strong following. Fans are familiar with his popular sayings such as, "There was no doubt about it" and "Go ball get outta' here."

A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) College in 1970. His baseball broadcasting career began in 1968 with the Geneva (NY) Senators (Class A).

Frattare's association with the Pirate organization began in 1974 and 1975 when he broadcast games for the Triple-A Charleston (WV) Charlies. In addition to his experience with the Pirates, he has also done play-by-play for Penn State football and Ohio State basketball in the past.

Frattare enjoys golf, presidential history and music. He does charitable work for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Goodwill Industries and Bob Prince Charities. He also hosts a celebrity golf tournament at St. Clair Country Club each July for the benefit of the Parent and Child Guidance Center. Lanny and his wife Liz reside in Upper St. Clair with their daughter, Megan. Their son, David, attends college at John Carroll University in Ohio.

Lanny was elected to the Western Chapter Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 1995 and was honored for a third time by Vectors/Pittsburgh in 1996 for his community service.

BROADCASTERS

Steve Blass

Steve Blass joined the Pittsburgh Pirates' broadcast crew in 1986. A native of Canaan, CT, he began his association with the Pirates when he signed his first professional contract back in 1960. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 seasons (1964-1974) with the Pirates, compiling a record of 103-76 in 282 games. He ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins.

A member of the 1972 National League All-Star team, Blass won 78 games during a five-year period between 1968 and 1972. He was a Pirate hero in the 1971 World Series against Baltimore when he picked up complete-game victories in Game Three and Game Seven.

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business. In 1982, he worked with Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment.

He and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and three grandchildren.

DID YOU KNOW . . . The first live radio broadcast of a baseball game occurred in Pittsburgh. KDKA Radio was the first to enter a new realm of sports media when Harold Arlin called the action from Forbes Field between the Pirates and Phillies on August 5, 1921.

Greg Brown

Greg Brown joined the Pirate broadcast team in 1994 after spending the previous five seasons doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association. The Mechanicsburg, PA, native also worked as a color analyst for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for three seasons (1991-93). In addition, he hosted "Bills Magazine" for the Empire Sports Network.

Brown's association with the Pirates began back in 1979 when he worked as an intern while attending Point Park College. He was hired as an assistant in the promotions department in 1980 and remained with the ballclub in a full-time capacity until he was hired by the Buffalo Bisons prior to the 1989 season.

In 1983, Brown was named Radio and Television Coordinator for the Pirates, a position he held for six years. In that role, he was largely responsible for coordinating the formation of the Pirate Radio Network. In 1986, he hosted the pregame and postgame shows on TCI Cable, while occasionally providing in-game play-by-play. He served as public address announcer at Three Rivers Stadium during the 1987 season and in 1988 he hosted "This Week in Pirate Baseball," the ballclub's weekly radio program that was heard on flagship station KDKA Radio and the Pirate Radio Network.

Greg and his wife Kim reside on Mt. Washington.

BROADCASTERS

Bob Walk

After spending 14 seasons in a big league uniform, Bob Walk joined the Pirate broadcast crew in 1994. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of those 14 years with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record and was 82-61 as a Pirate.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June Draft. He made his major league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against the Kansas City Royals.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984. Walk was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. His finest moment as a Pirate came in 1992 when he notched a 7-1, complete-game victory over Atlanta in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk and his wife Lorrie live in Wexford with their three sons; Tommy, Johnny and Ronnie.

History

History of the Pittsburgh Pirates

Now in their 110th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenies were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenies reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenies defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenies' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates.

World Series"

In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, Dreyfuss brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

One of the greatest third basemen in baseball history, Pie Traynor compiled a .320 lifetime batting average.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30th that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336 which is still a Pirate rookie record. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's most valuable player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — who was tagged "Little Poison" — hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

Between them, Paul (left) and Lloyd Waner collected more than 5,500 hits and are the only brother combination in Baseball's Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against the New York Yankees famed "Murderers' Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirate uniform (1946-52) — which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th to May 28th (mark was tied by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and future Hall of Famer Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the game. The game and the Series ended, however, baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In fact, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club in the 25 years since divisional play began in 1969. The Bucs put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning percentage), in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in the 1993 fall classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home-run hitter of the 1970's (296).

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of public and private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors who represented six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group consisted of the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

Under the direction of Manager Jim Leyland, the Pirates won three straight National League Eastern Division Titles (1990-1992).

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark. With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Pirates became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 10 seasons at the helm, Leyland has won 776 games, ranking him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991. A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional baseball game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994.

The newest chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates. With new ownership, and visions of a new "baseball-only" ballpark on the horizon, the Pirates' organization appears to have solidified its foundation in the city through the millenium.

Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirate manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years. only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average, and 101 homers. *Starter

DID YOU KNOW . . . Arky Vaughan is one of only five players to hit two home runs in the same All-Star Game. The Pirate shortstop was the first; smacking a pair in the 1941 Mid-Summer Classic. Ted Williams (1946), Al Rosen (1954), Willie McCovey (1969) and Gary Carter (1981) have also accomplished the feat.
